The name and Title of this organization shall be he American Telugu Association, hereinafter called ATA. It shall be a not-for-profit organization registered under the laws of the State of Illinois and shall exist in perpetuity. The functioning of ATA shall be on a calendar year basis.

Article II: OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSES

Section 1: To promote exchange programs for students, scientists, and professionals of Telugu origin between the United States of America, Canada and India as well as other countries.

Section 2: To perpetuate, preserve, and maintain the heritage of the people of Telugu origin.

Section 3: To assist and promote literary, cultural, educational, social, economic, health and community activities of the people of Telugu origin.

Section 4: To invite distinguished Telugu scholars, artists, artisans, and statesmen to America for lectures, seminars, and congregations.

Section 5: To assist people of Telugu origin in need and aid newly arrived people of Telugu origin to settle and assimilate with the mainstream in America

Section 6: To organize periodic Telugu literary, educational, youth, and cultural conferences, either independently or in cooperation with the Telugu or other associations.

Section 7: To serve Telugu communities across the nation, addressing mainly the issues faced by them in the mainstream society.

Section 8: To solicit, raise, and disburse funds for charitable purposes, cultural, and educational activities directly or in cooperation with other not-for-profit organizations of America to meet the aforementioned.

Section 9: The ATA shall also have such powers as are now or may hereafter be granted by the General Not-For Profit Corporation Act of the State of Illinois.

Article III: MEMBERS

Section 1: The ATA shall have three (3) categories of members who constitute the general body. In addition, ATA shall have an associate membership category whose members shall not constitute part of the general body. The designation of each such category and the qualification of the members of such category shall be as follows:

A. GRAND PATRON MEMBER: Any person who qualifies as per the section 2 of this article and pay the prescribed membership dues becomes a Grand patron member.

B. PATRON MEMBER: Any person who qualifies as per the section 2 of this article and pays the prescribed membership dues becomes a Patron Member.

C. LIFE MEMBER: Any person who qualifies as per the section 2 of this article and pay the prescribed membership dues becomes a Life Member

D. ASSOCIATE MEMBER: Students with good standing visa status (F1 or J1) qualify to be associate members. Associate members will not have voting rights.

Section 2: MEMBERSHIP DEFINITION AND QUALIFICATIONS

Definition: Grand patrons, patrons and life members are entitled to family membership. Any person becoming a member of ATA shall:

- A. Fill out the membership application form (using online/paper forms or select the option to become a member on the ATA conference registration form);
- B. Pay the appropriate membership dues;
- C. Abide by the objectives and purposes of ATA as defined in Article II and abide by all terms of this Constitution and the ATA Bylaws; and
- D. Be at least 18 years of age.

Associate Members must be approved by the Board of Trustees. Any disputes regarding a person's qualification for any membership category shall be resolved by the Board of Trustees acting in its absolute discretion.

Section 3: MEMBERSHIP DUES

A. The Board of Trustees may revise the membership dues from time to time with the approval of two-thirds (2/3^{rds}) majority of the full board. Any revision in the membership dues shall be made only once in a calendar year and shall be implemented at the beginning of next calendar year.

B. Funds received from Corporations, Charitable Trust Funds, Associations or any entities shall not be considered towards membership dues. Funds received from any individuals on behalf of a third party shall not be considered towards membership dues. A third party is one who is not a member (husband or wife or children) of family.

C. Except for donations received for ATA Conference, any other donations shall not be considered towards membership dues. Any conference donor who is not an ATA member who donates $ 2500 or more towards the ATA conference will be granted life membership if he/she agrees to be a member by selecting the option to become member on conference registration form. Membership granted through donation will be valid only upon assignment of membership number as stated in ATA Bylaws.

D. Any member can upgrade his/her membership status to higher level of his/her choice by paying the difference in membership dues within the same calendar year. Membership status shall be effective from the date of the receipt of the payment.

Section 4: WITHDRAWALS

Any member may request withdrawal in writing at any time to the Board of Trustees. Upon approval of such request by the Board of Trustees the Secretary shall strike his or her name from the rolls. Any member requesting withdrawal will not have any claim for the return or refund of any dues contributed to the organization.

Section 5: DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS

Documented activities against the purposes of the organization as defined in Article II shall constitute grounds for disqualification from membership. These allegations shall be communicated to the member by the Board of Trustees through registered or certified mail. The alleged member shall then be entitled to a hearing before the Board of Trustees on such charges and shall be entitled to a full opportunity to be heard. In order to be eligible for the aforementioned hearing, the alleged member must request a formal hearing in writing by certified mail within thirty (30) days from the receipt of the above notification by the Board. The date, time, location, and all other details of the formal hearing shall be set by the Board of Trustees in its sole discretion, except that there shall be at least 21 (twenty-one) number of days' notice before the hearing takes place. If a member fails to timely request a formal hearing, the member's rights are terminated effective on the thirty-first day following the member's receipt of the Board's notification. If the member does request a full hearing, the approval of two-thirds of the full Board of Trustees shall be required for the disqualification of membership rights after the conclusion of the full hearing. Any member may be disqualified on the grounds of anti-organization activity, defamation of the office bearers of the organization, incompetence, corruption, favoritism, extortion, or oppression in office or gross misconduct in a board meeting called for such purpose. Any member whose membership rights are terminated in accordance with this Section 5 shall not have any claim for the return or refund of any dues contributed to the organization.

Section 6: VOTING RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

Except as hereinafter provided in Article IV for the election of the Board of Trustees, each family member (single- 1 member; married- 2 members) shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to voting in respective categories of memberships, provided he or she has been a member as of last day of the month, 3 months prior to the date of voting, and has completed, signed, and filed with the Secretary a membership form. Any changes in marital status and change of address shall be notified in writing to the Secretary by the member by the above date. Also, as stated in Article III, Section 1-D, associate members have no voting rights.

Section 7: NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Written or printed notice stating the place, day, and time of any General Body meeting of members and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered either personally, by electronic media, or by mail, to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than two weeks (fourteen days) and not more than thirty (30) days prior to the date of such meeting, by the Secretary. If mailed such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States Mail, addressed to the member at his or her address as it appears, as of last day of the month, 3 months prior to the date of voting, on the records of the organization.

Section 8: QUORUM

The quorum for any meeting shall be 10% of each category of the members entitled to vote at any meeting, present in person. All proposals, except amendments to constitution, are considered approved if voted by simple majority in each category of the members present at the meeting.
