For Immediate Press Release

Washington D.C. May 30th, 2011

Washington DC, May 30: Sathish Reddy Mallavaram aged 35 who hails from Warangal district is dead and two others seriously injured after a two-car crash on Route 9 in Loudoun County, police say. A witness claims one of the drivers was using a cell phone moments before the wreck. Around 6:40 p.m. Sunday, a Toyota Yaris was traveling east on Route 9 when it swerved across the centerline and struck a westbound Toyota Forerunner head-on.

The driver of the Yaris died at the scene. According to a witness, he was preoccupied with a handheld electronic device moments before the crash. His identity has not yet been released pending a notification of next of kin. The driver of the Forerunner, Anna M. Castro., 48, of Vienna, Va., and passenger, Jose Castro-Rivas, 39, of Vienna, Va., were flown to Inova Fairfax Hospital, with life threatening injuries. Both were wearing seat belts.

The accident remains under investigation. The Virginia State Police Accident Reconstruction Team is assisting.

American Telugu Association (ATA) Action Emergency Team is talking to the concerned persons and working on other formalities to send the body to India.
