Press Note

Date November 28th 2011

Somajiguda on 28.11.2011 at 3:00 PM

American Telugu Association (ATA) is proud to announce ATA Vedukalu in India as a kickoff ceremony for its 12th ATA Convention at Atlanta GA.

ATA is one of the oldest Telugu and not a profit-making organization and been established in 1990. It is hosted solely with the intention of providing a social event for the community and to promote Literacy, Cultural, Educational, Economic, Social, Health and community activities for Telugu People across the globe. ATA spends millions of dollars every year in supporting Telugu community across the globe. ATA has sponsored many educational projects in India and also raised funds to support flood relief, earth quake and Tsunami. Some of the major projects ATA has successfully completed with it's sponsors are Prathima Medical College, at Karimnagar, LBR College of Engineering at Mylavaram, Krishna district where ATA is scheduled it's ATA Vedukalu event on December 12th 2011, and many other educational institutes and Rehab for disabilities and home for aged institutes in Andhra Pradesh. ATA also sponsored many talented needy students with it's Vidyadanam program, and adopt a village programs. ATA was able to do all these community activities for last 24 years with the support of it's donors across the globe.

ATA conducts it's mega bi-annual conferences every 2 years in North America in various cities where 8000 to 15000 members attend and many dignitaries from AP attend. We bridge the culture between India and USA by serving as a cultural ambassador by exchanging cultural, literacy and artistic ideas via participating in Telugu cultural performances across the globe and by inviting distinguished Telugu Scholars, artists, artisans, statesmen to North America for lectures and seminars. The next conference is scheduled in Atlanta, GA from July 6-8' 2012. To Kick off the ATA convention, we planned a series of activities with ATA Seva Days/ Vedukalu in Andhra Pradesh.

A team of 15 ATA delegates have arrived at Hyderabad from USA to oversee the activities regards to ATA Seva Days /Vedukalu. A team of 30 more ATA delegates are expected to arrive Hyderabad from US by next week.
